This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

HISTORICAL SKETCH.

IN THE YEAR 1639, ROGER LUDLOW, a magistrate or deputy-governor of the colony of Connecticut, came from Windsor, with a few families, to what was then called by the Indians Unquowa, and began the settlement of the town of Fairfield. These first settlers were soon joined by others from Concord and Watertown, Massachusetts.

Fearing God, they at once formed a church, known in the beginning as "The First Church of Christ in Fairfield," and afterwards as "The First Church of Christ in Fairfield of the Congregational Order." The following were the first nine pastors of this church:

JOHN JONES, ...	1644 to 1664.
SAMUEL WAKEMAN,	1665 to 1692.
JOSEPH WEBB, . . .	1694 to 1732.
NOAH HOBART, . .	1733 to 1773.
ANDREW ELIOT, . .	1774 to 1805.
HEMAN HUMPHREY,	1807 to 1817.
NATHANIEL HEWIT,	1818 to 1827.
JOHN HUNTER, . .	1828 to 1834.
LYMAN H. ATWATER,	1835 to 1854.

Southport was for many years a part of the Fairfield parish. The people of Southport, having built a meeting-house in their own village in 1841, resolved at a meeting held February 18, 1843, to form a new church, and therefore called a council of five neighboring churches for March 7, 1843. This council organized "The Southport Congregational Church," with a membership of twenty-eight. The sermon in the afternoon was by the Rev. Lyman H. Atwater, of Fairfield. In the evening the House was set apart to the worship of God, the Rev. Dr. Nathaniel Hewit, of Bridgeport, preaching the dedication sermon. The church was received into the Fairfield West Consociation June 6, 1843.

Mr. Samuel J. M. Merwin was ordained the first pastor of the church December 18, 1844. He served the church more than fourteen years, and was dismissed at his own request May 3, 1859.

The Rev. Charles E. Lindsley was installed pastor February 29, 1860. By his own desire he was dismissed February 16, 1869.

The Rev. George E. Hill was installed pastor March 22, 1870. During his ministry the old meeting-house was removed, and a stone house of worship built in its place. This was dedicated February 2, 1876. The sermon, from Haggai II, 9, was preached by the Rev. Samuel J. M. Merwin. Other parts in the service were taken by the Rev. Dr. Lyman H. Atwater, the Rev. Charles E. Lindsley, and the Rev. George E. Hill. Near the close of that year Mr. Hill resigned, and he was dismissed December 27, 1876.

Mr. William H. Holman was called October 2, 1877, to supply the pulpit for one year, and began work with the church December 2, 1877. A call to the pastorate was given him May 14, 1878, and he was ordained minister of the church June 12, 1878.

CONFESSION OF FAITH

AND

COVENANT.

Adopted by the First Church of Christ in Fairfield, March 18, 1807. Accepted by the Southport Congregational Church at its organization, March 7, 1843, and used by it until March 3, 1882.

THE CONFESSION OF FAITH.

ARTICLE 1. We believe in God. The Father, Son, and Holy Ghost: that these three are the one only living and true God: infinite, unchangeable, and eternal: the same in substance: equal in power and glory.

ARTICLE 2. We believe that God created all things by his power; that he is the supreme and rightful governor of all beings and events; and that every event takes place under the direction of his infinite and unerring wisdom, and will be overruled for his glory.

ARTICLE 3. We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament are the word of God; the only unerring rule of faith and practice binding on the consciences of men at all times. And we acknowledge our obligation, and profess our intention, by the assistance of Divine Grace, on which we humbly rely, to conform ourselves to them, both in faith and practice, as we shall have light and understanding in them.

ARTICLE 4. We believe that God at first created man in his own image, consisting in knowledge and righteousness; and that he entered into a covenant of life with him, on condition of perfect obedience: but that our first parents fell by eating the forbidden fruit, and thus brought sin and misery upon themselves and all their posterity.

ARTICLE 5. We believe that God of his own good pleasure hath from the beginning chosen some of our fallen race to salvation, through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth; that he hath provided a Saviour for sinners, even his only begotten Son, Jesus Christ, whom he constituted to be head of his Church, to rule and govern in the kingdoms of providence and grace; and that Christ took upon himself human nature, and by his sufferings, righteousness, and death, made a complete atonement for the sins of men; and that on this atonement rest all our hopes of favor and acceptance with God.

ARTICLE 6. We believe that it is the indispensable duty of all men, immediately, upon the first proposals of the gospel, to embrace Christ as he is therein offered.

ARTICLE 7. We believe that men are naturally enemies to God; that the carnal mind is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be; that none will embrace the gospel salvation, until their hearts are bowed and renewed by the Holy Ghost.

Digitized by Google

ARTICLE 8. We believe in the absolute necessity of repentance towards God and faith in our Lord Jesus Christ; that both these are the gift of God, and that without them none who enjoy the gospel can be saved.

ARTICLE 9. We believe in the sacraments of the New Testament, Baptism and the Lord's Supper; that the Lord's Supper is to be administered only to the visible friends of Christ, but that Baptism is to be administered not only to those that actually profess faith in and obedience to Christ, but also to the infants of one or both believing parents in full communion with the Church.

ARTICLE 10. We believe that the path of the just is as the shining light, shining more and more unto the perfect day; that they shall never perish; neither shall any pluck them out of Christ's hand: that he that believeth is passed from death unto life, and shall not come into condemnation: that all things work together for good to them that love God—to them who are called according to his purpose: that whom he did foreknow he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the first born among many brethren: moreover, that whom he did predestinate, them he also called, and whom he called, them he also justified, and whom he justified, them he also glorified.

ARTICLE 11. We believe in the doctrine of the general resurrection and of the judgment to come: that both the righteous and the wicked shall be raised at the last day: that the righteous shall be welcomed to the kingdom of heaven, and the wicked shall go away into everlasting punishment.

THE COVENANT.

You do now in the presence of God and this assembly, solemnly avouch the Lord Jehovah—Father, Son, and Holy Ghost—to be your God; and so far as you know your own hearts, do solemnly give up yourselves to be the Lord's; and promise, by Divine Grace assisting you, to strive to walk in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blamelessly. You do also promise and covenant with this Church, that you will endeavor to walk with them in holy fellowship and love: that you will faithfully exercise and practice the discipline which Christ has established in his Church, so far as you understand it, and meekly submit to the same.

We, then, the members of this Church, [here the Church rise,] receive you to our fellowship; promising to conduct towards you and to watch over you with Christian affection; praying that you and we may at last be presented faultless before our Lord with exceeding joy. Amen.

STATISTICS.

THE first meeting-house, a wooden structure, was erected in 1841–43, and cost, including $400 paid for the land, $4290.25. The parsonage was built in 1860, at an expense of $4901.37. Of this sum $800 was paid for the lot on which it stands. About $50,000 have been expended on the stone house of worship now used by the church.

The other expenses of the church, during the thirty-nine years from March 7, 1843, to March 7, 1882, were about $64,000, making the entire outlay for the support of the gospel at home more than $123,000. The benevolences of the church during the same time exceeded $425,000.

The society passed the following vote June 21, 1843:

"That the salary for a minister (when settled) be fixed at $500 per annum."

This action was repealed July 1, 1844, and Mr. Merwin was called October 30, 1844, at a salary of $600. His salary was raised January 1, 1852, to $700; January 1, 1854, to $750; July 1, 1857, to $800. Mr. Lindsley was called January 9, 1860, his salary being fixed at $1000. During the year a parsonage was built for his use. Mr. Hill was called January 19, 1870, on a salary of $1500, and the use of the parsonage. Since that time the salary has not been changed.

AND COVENANT.

Adopted, by a vote of 71 to 3, March 3, 1882.

Digitized by Google

THE CONFESSION OF FAITH.

We believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker and Ruler of heaven and earth; who so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on him should not perish, but have eternal life:

And in Jesus Christ, his Son, our Lord; who was in the beginning with God, and was God; who loved us, and for our salvation came down from heaven, became man, suffered, and died on the cross; through whose blood we have our redemption, the forgiveness of our sins; who rose from the dead, went up into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father; whence he shall come again to judge the living and the dead:

And in the Holy Spirit, the Comforter; by whom the scriptures were given; who renews and sanctifies the heart, and keeps us in the way that leadeth unto life; who with the Father and the Son, together one God, is alone to be worshipped, and supremely to be loved.

We believe in the church of God, the household of the faith; in baptism, and the communion of the body and blood of Christ; and we wait for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE COVENANT.

Before God, angels, and men, you avow the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, to be your God. You take the word of God to be the rule of your life. Trusting in him who has said, My grace is sufficient for thee, you promise to follow Christ in all things. You acknowledge this to be a true church of Christ, and you covenant to seek its purity, peace, and well-being.

We, on our part, rejoicing in your confession and covenant, welcome you to our fellowship. We break with you this bread of life, and share with you this cup of blessing. We promise to love you and pray for you always, and to admonish, cheer, and comfort you, as we shall see your need.

The Lord bless you, and keep you. The Lord make his face shine upon you, and be gracious unto you. The Lord lift up his countenance upon you, and give you peace.

RULES.

Adopted February 25, 1881.

Digitized by Google

RULES.

I. The Standing Committee shall consist of the Pastor, Deacons, and Superintendent of the Sunday-School. It shall be the duty of this Committee to examine all persons who may wish to unite with this Church, and to recommend them to the Church, if they shall deem them worthy to become members.

II. Candidates recommended by the Standing Committee for admission to the Church, on profession of their faith in Christ, shall stand propounded at least two weeks previous to Communion, and unless objection be made to their admission, they shall be received.

III. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper shall be observed on the afternoon of the first Lord's day of January, March, May, July, September, and November. The Preparatory Lecture shall be given on the Friday afternoon next preceding each Communion service; and the meeting for prayer, on the evening of that day, shall be omitted.

IV. The regular time for the transaction of the ordinary business of the Church, shall be at the close of the Friday evening meeting for prayer. Special meetings of the Church may be called at any time, when, in the judgment of the Pastor or Deacons, it is expedient; and shall be called upon the written request of any five members of the Church.

V. Every member of this Church removing elsewhere, will be expected to take a letter of dismission and recommendation to the Church with which he worships, within one year from the time of such change, or render reasonable excuse for not doing so, to the Standing Committee.

VI. When any member of this Church, having removed elsewhere, and having ceased to attend upon its services for one year, shall fail to give satisfactory excuse therefor upon application by the Standing Committee, or cannot be found after due inquiry, the Committee is authorized to drop his name from the roll of the Church; and in such case the word "Dropped" shall be written opposite the name on the record, together with the date and reason therefor.

VII. When any member of a sister Church shall statedly worship and commune with this Church for more than one year, without removing his relation to us, unless satisfactory reason be given therefor, it shall be the duty of the Standing Committee to notify the Church to which he belongs of that fact.

VIII. The necessary expenses of all Delegations to Councils and meetings of Consociation, shall be paid by the Treasurer from the funds of the Church.

IX. The Pastor shall be ex-officio Moderator of all business meetings of the Church. When he is a party in interest, or absent, a Moderator shall be chosen by the meeting.

X. All members of this Church in good standing, and of age, may vote at its business meetings.

MEMBERS.

NOTE.—Of the twenty-eight original members, whose names are given on the next page, twenty-two came from the First Church of Christ in Fairfield. The other six brought letters from the following churches: Nos. 2 and 3 from the Congregational Church in Hamden, East Plains, Connecticut; Nos. 21, 22, and 26 from the Congregational Church in Green's Farms, Connecticut; No. 27 from the First Congregational Church in South Hadley, Massachusetts.

EXPLANATIONS AND ABBREVIATIONS.—When no State is named, it is understood that the town referred to is in Connecticut. The only exception to this rule is in the case of New York city.

Names in parentheses are maiden names; the names of husbands are given in brackets. The letter "w" stands for widow, and "m" for married. Eliz. is put for Elizabeth; S., under Roll No. 37, for Samuel; A., under Roll No. 85, for Andrew.

Ch. means Church; Ch'l, Chapel; Prot., Protestant; C. or Cong., Congregational; Pres., Presbyterian; R. or Ref., Reformed; Bap., Baptist; D., Dutch; M., Methodist; E. or Epis., Episcopal; Asso., Associate; Coll., Collegiate; M'l or Memor'l, Memorial; Sq., Square; st., street; av., avenue; sta., station; W., West; S., South; Da'us, Damascus; Westm'str, Westminster; B'way or Broadw'y, Broadway; Bkln, Brooklyn; Phil'a or Philad'a, Philadelphia; Minneap's, Minneapolis; Plym'th, Plymouth; Saxonv'le, Saxonville; Louisv'e, Louisville; Ch.
